

Visiting the Edmondson Pike Library

When I visit the Children's Department at the Edmondson Pike Branch Library, I will try to talk quietly using my inside voice. Sometimes, the library gets very busy. When that happens, it can get very loud. Sometimes, a baby might cry. I will try to walk when I am in the library. Sometimes there are a lot of children and grownups looking for books or reading or playing in different areas.

There is an area in the picture book room with a puppet theater and puppets that I can play with if I want to. There are activities on the ends of bookcases that I can sit and play with. I can sit down at computers and play ABC Mouse. I can sit on benches or chairs to read alone or with my grown-up.

If I want to play on the internet, the librarian can make me a reservation for a computer near the windows and Information Desk, but I might have to wait for one to be available. I will try to be patient if I have to wait for a computer. I will try to wait my turn if someone is playing with something I want to play with.

If I need help finding something, I can ask the librarian at the desk. The librarian can help me find books, DVDs, and audiobooks. The librarian can also help me check out books and put books on hold if they are not available when I am there. If I want, I can use the self-checkout computer to check out my own books. I can ask my grown-up if I need help.
