

Visiting the Main Library

When I visit the children's department at the library, I can talk using my inside voice. Sometimes, the library gets very busy. When that happens, it can get very loud. Sometimes, a baby might cry.

I will try to walk when I am in the library and if I want to climb, I can use the climbing wall. When the library is busy, sometimes there are a lot of children playing in different areas. There are tables for playing with trains, tables for playing with LEGO bricks, tables for tinker toys, and computers. There is also a big structure called a reading fort. I will try to wait my turn if someone is playing with something I want to play with.

If I need help finding something, I can ask the librarian at the desk. The librarian can help me find books, DVDs, and audiobooks. The librarian can also help me check out books and put books on hold if they are not available when I am there.
